THE MOUNTAIN COURSE AT SPRUCE PEAK

Winding along the natural contours of the mountainside, the acclaimed Mountain Course at Spruce Peak is a true alpine golf experience. Rising to over 1,800 feet in elevation, this Bob Cupp designed course brings you through dramatic rock outcroppings and wooded areas to provide every round sweeping views of Mount Mansfield and the Spruce Peak Village

STOWE COUNTRY CLUB

Fully redesigned by Beau Welling Design, this stunning layout blends classic charm with modern playability, all set against the breathtaking backdrop of the Green Mountains. After two years of renovations, the full 18 holes is now open available starting summer 2026. Every round is a chance to test your skill, embrace the beauty of Vermont's long summer days, and be part of the next chapter in Stowe's rich golf legacy.
