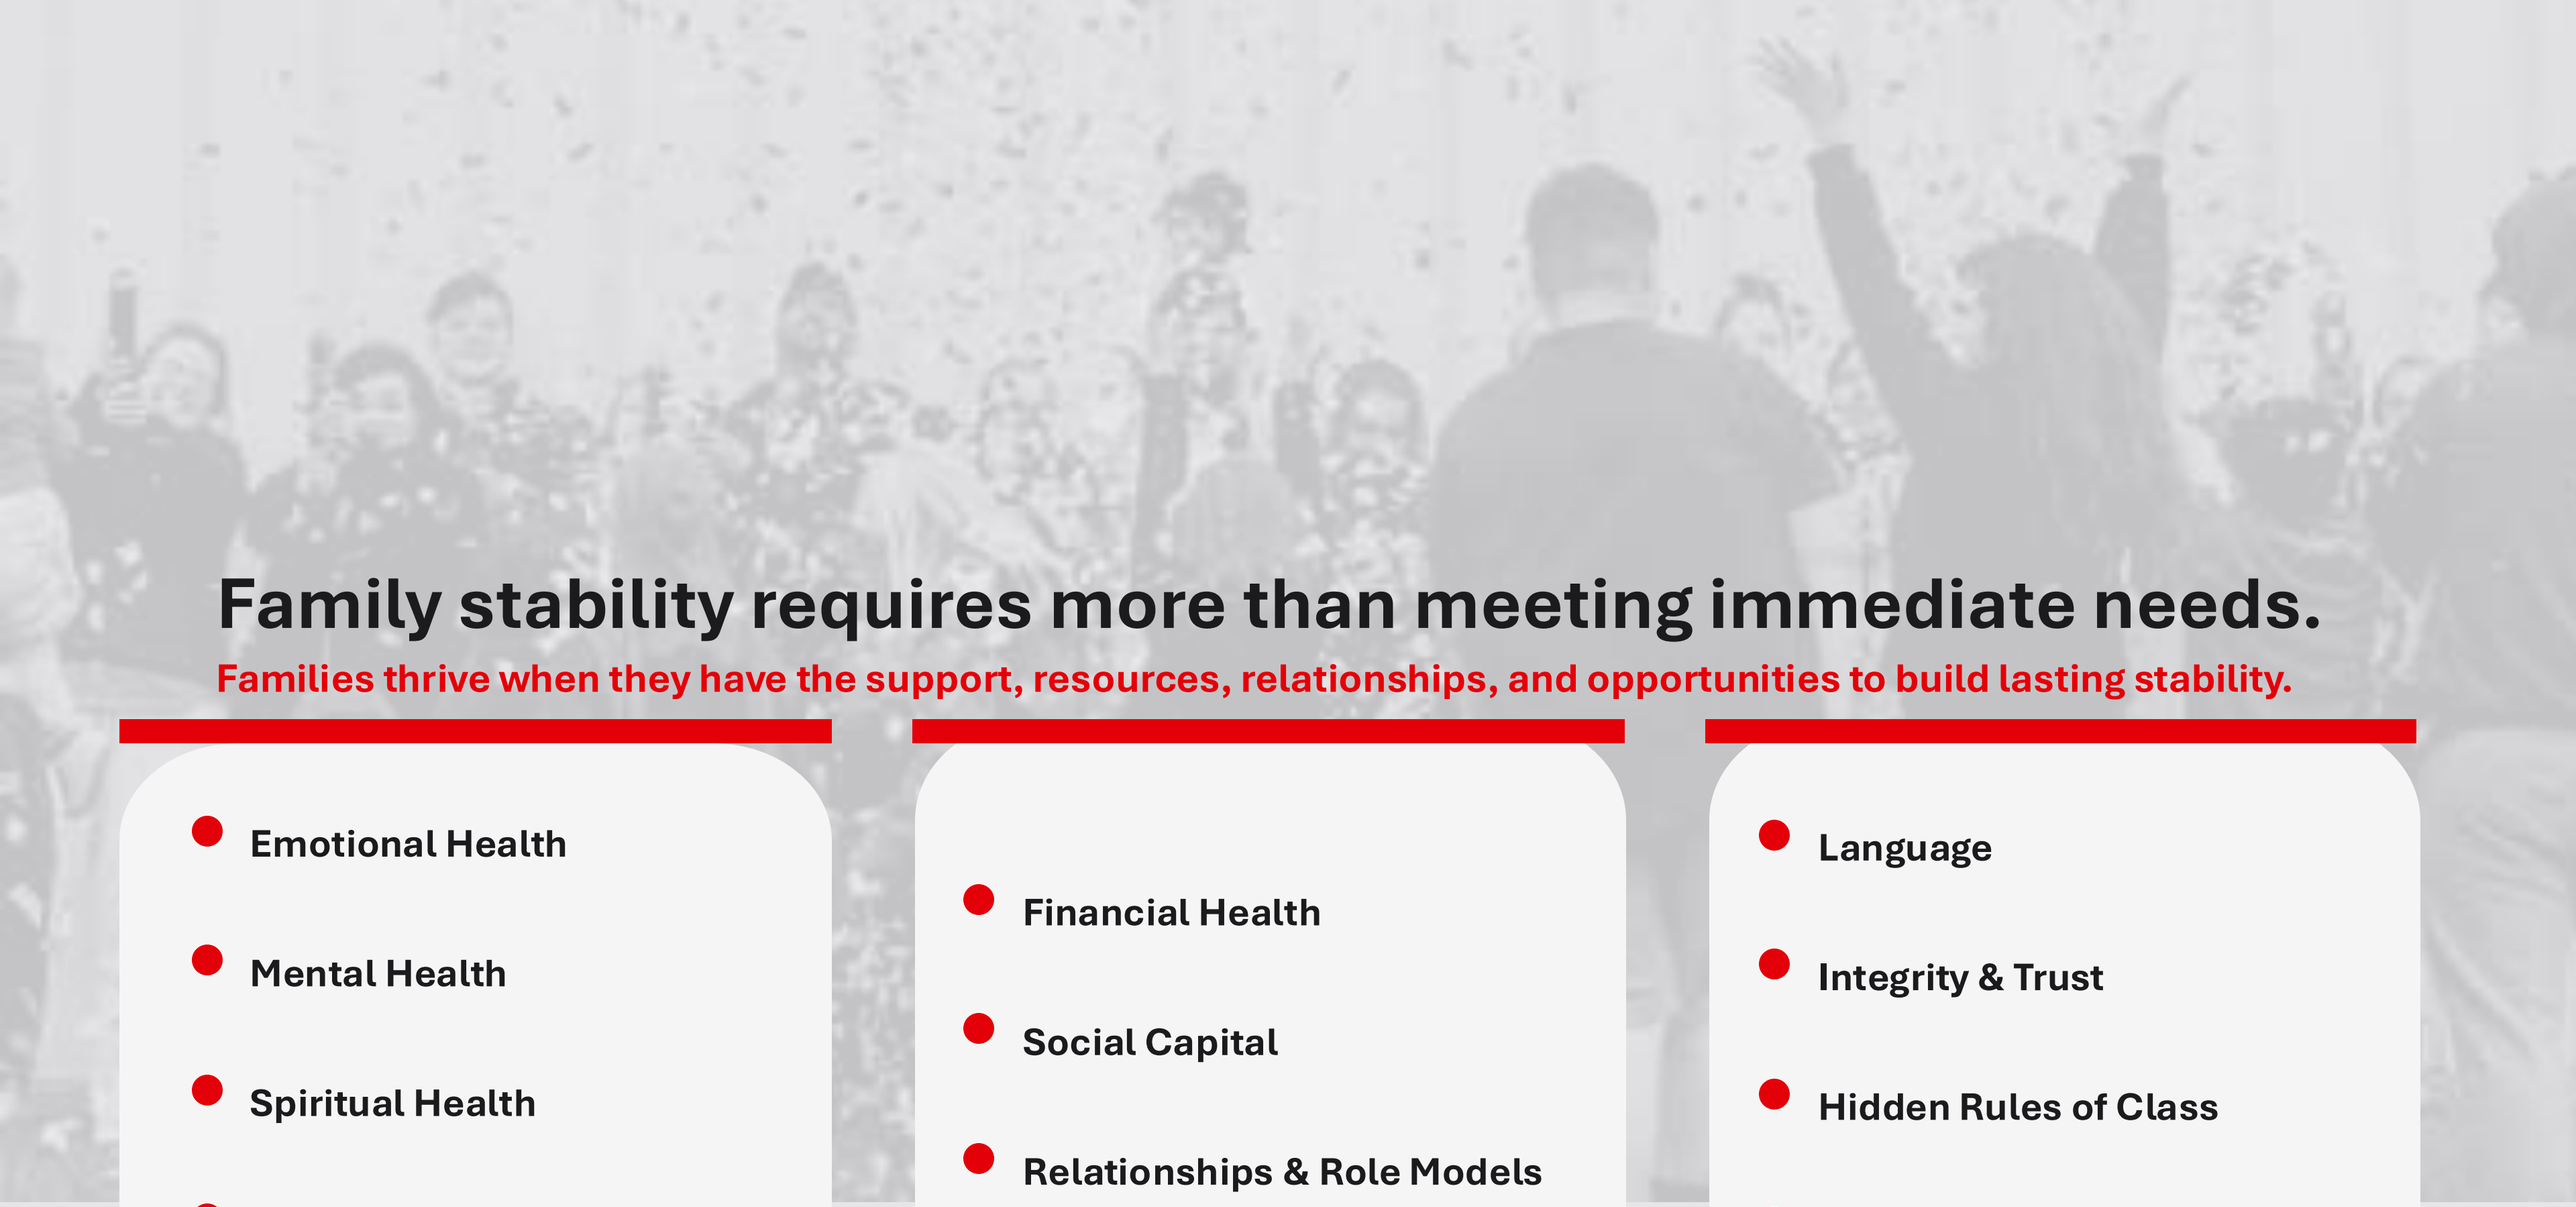
Radical Life

RADICAL LIFE EMPORIA | NOVEMBER 13, 2026

What would happen if support arrived before the crisis?

Building barriers at the top of the cliff, instead of hospitals at the bottom.



Family stability requires more than meeting immediate needs.

Families thrive when they have the support, resources, relationships, and opportunities to build lasting stability.

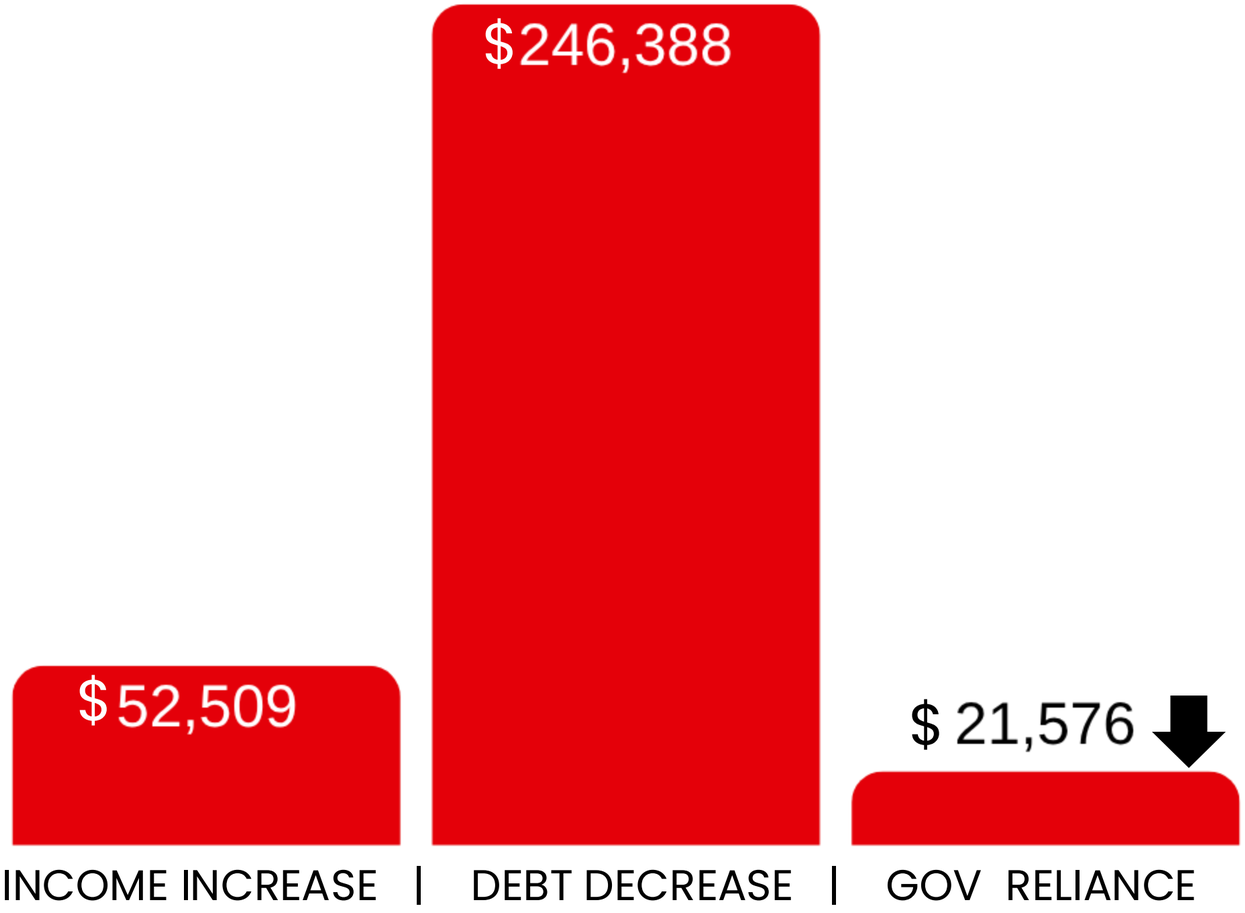
- Emotional Health
- Mental Health
- Spiritual Health
- Physical Health

- Financial Health
- Social Capital
- Relationships & Role Models

- Language
- Integrity & Trust
- Hidden Rules of Class
- Motivation & Persistence

Family stability is tangible. And the results are measurable.

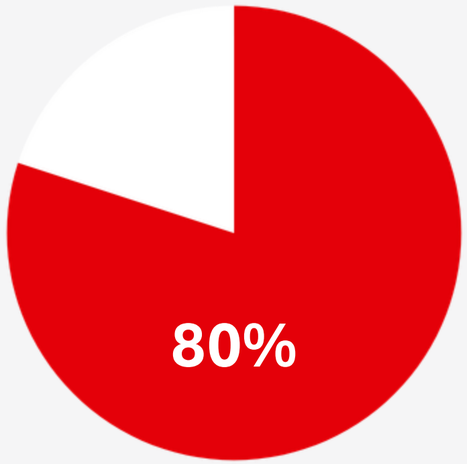
Collective impact reported for Radical Life Leaders in Cohorts 1–8.



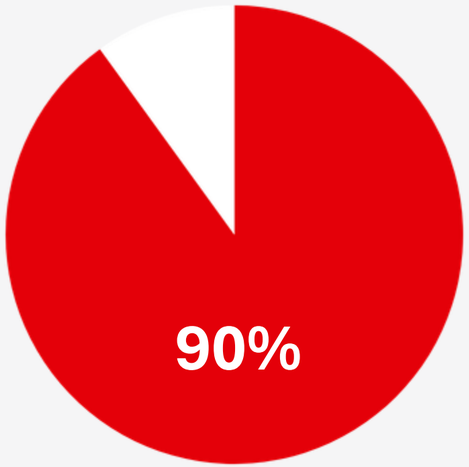
The government-assistance figure reflects an annualized reduction based on more than $1,798 less reliance per month.

Change becomes visible in the areas that shape family stability.

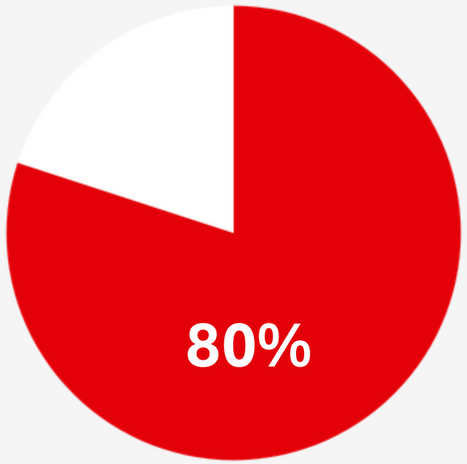
Radical Life Cohorts 1–8 | Reported outcomes



CORRECTIONS



EDUCATION



THERAPY

Progress happens when support connects to opportunity.

A practical pathway that meets families where they are and helps build what comes next.

PHASE 1

Understand the resources available and how they affect my family right now.

PHASE 2

Identify gaps and build the resources each family needs.

PHASE 3

Give back to our community and help break cycles of poverty, incarceration, addiction, and foster care.

1:1 COACHING

Weekly one-on-one coaching using trauma-responsive approaches to make goals and action steps manageable.

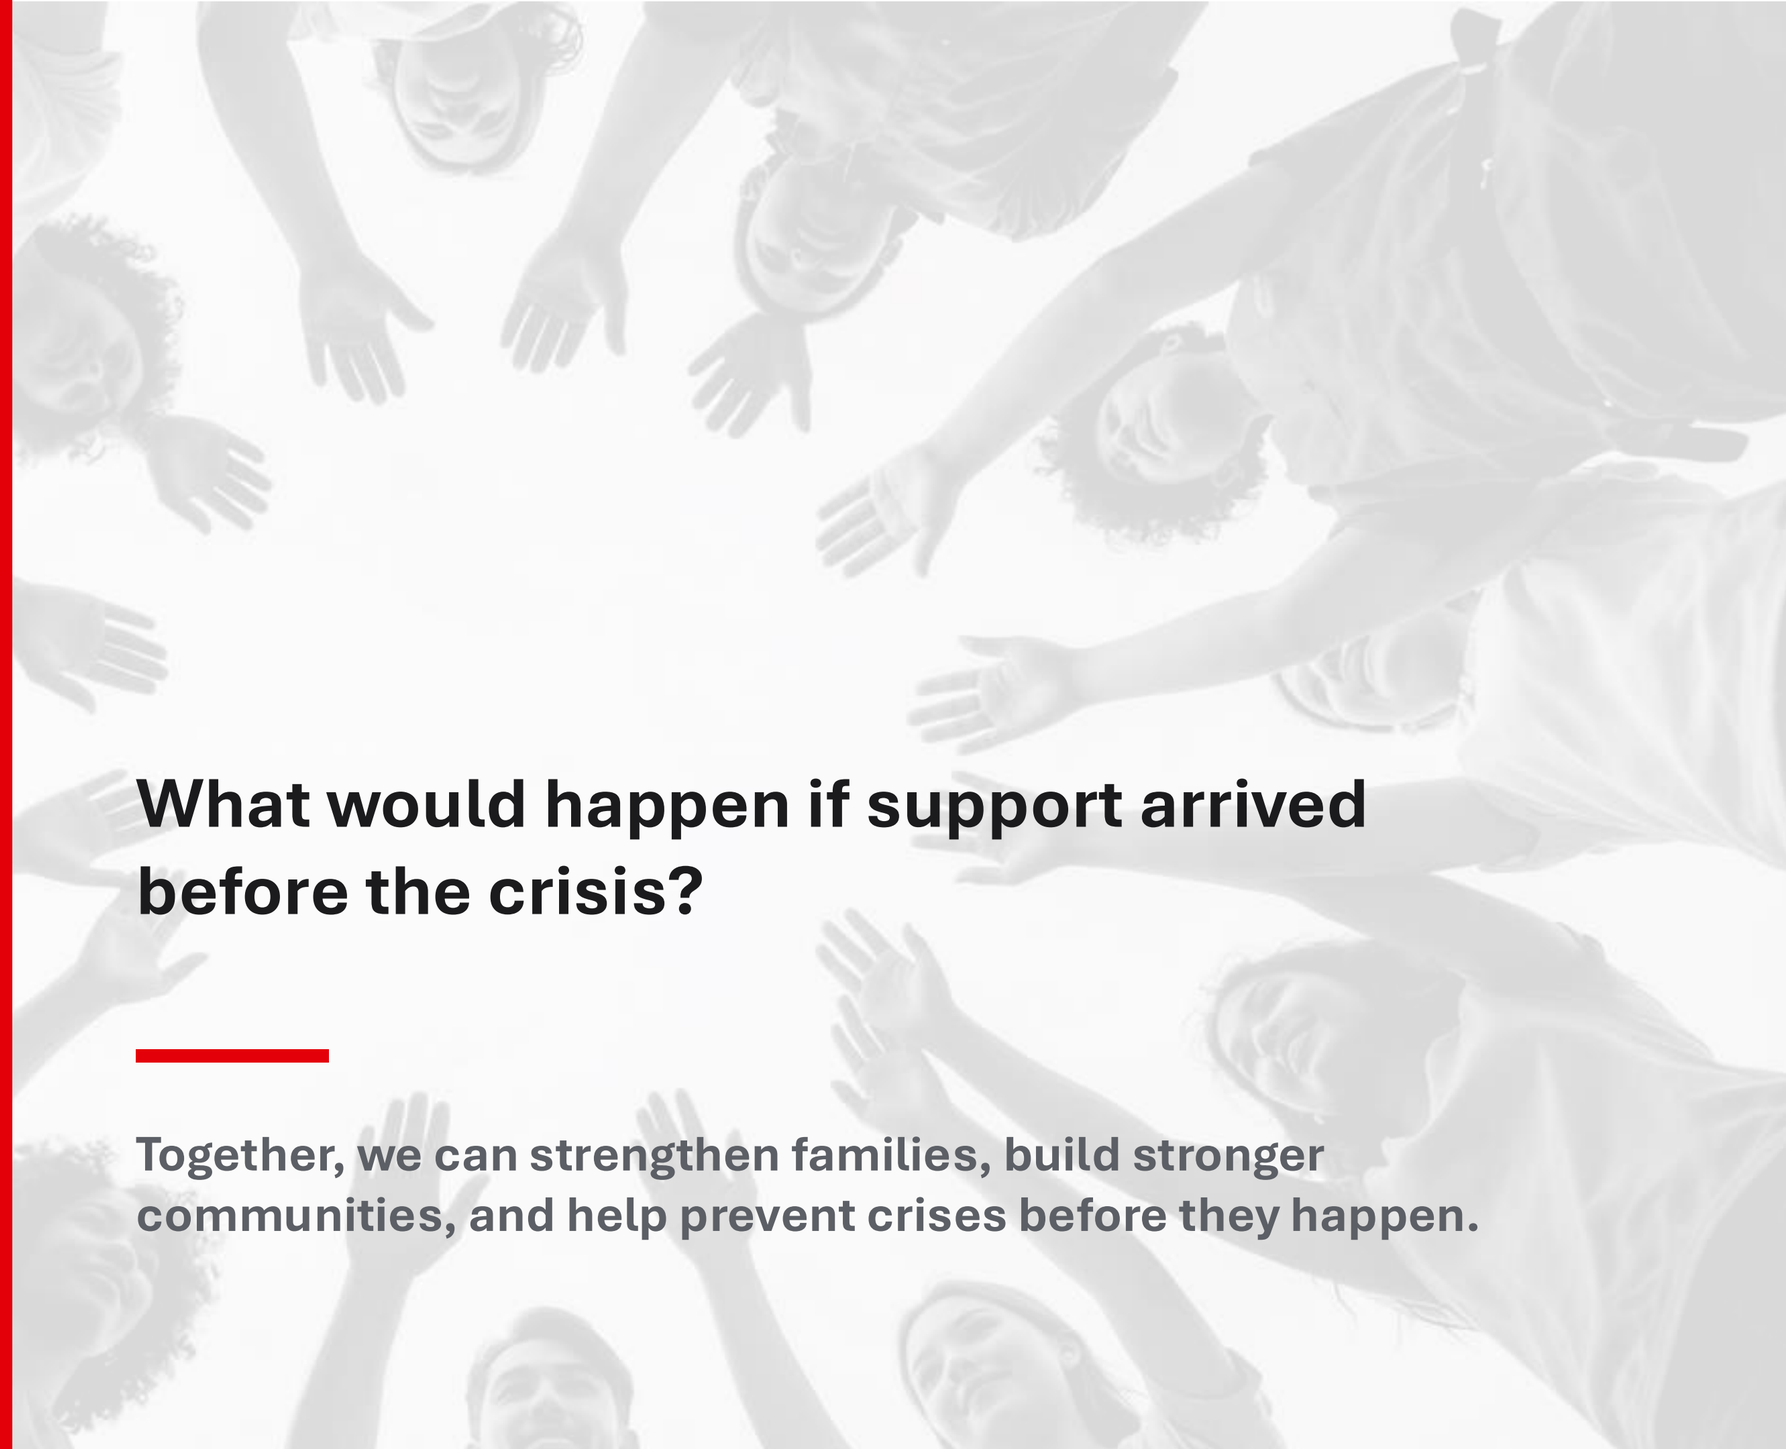
Radical Life

We cannot build stable families without building supportive communities.

BELONGING IS PART OF THE WORK.

Our hope is that every visitor and volunteer experiences the mercy, peace, and love that grow when a community chooses to care for one another.

Radical Life



What would happen if support arrived before the crisis?

Together, we can strengthen families, build stronger communities, and help prevent crises before they happen.

www.radicallifeemporia.com
620-208-7004
Lindsay@radicallifeemporia.com