Carrier Corporation and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, "Carrier") are committed to protecting the personal information of persons using this events registration system. This system is subject to the Employee Privacy Notice for personal information collected from employees and the General Privacy Notice for personal information collected from all others. Additional, more specific information is provided below.

What personal information do we collect from you?
Data collected from you is identified in the registration form and may include your name, title, contact information (work location, email and phone numbers), citizenship, information about your assistant, emergency contact, and other information relevant for the purpose of planning the event, such as your meal preferences and travel information. For some events, you may be able to receive assistance making your reservations, in which case your payment information will also be required. Your information is retained only as long as necessary for the purpose for which it was collected.

How will we use the personal information that you provide?
The personal information you provide will be used to: (1) plan for and manage the event facilities and services; (2) track event attendance; (3) plan for future events; (4) share contact information with other event attendees; (5) provide event information to you, including through mobile applications; (6) protect against fraud and other compliance risks, including without limitation in the conduct of internal investigations; (7) facilitate the sale or transfer of some or all of the assets of Carrier or one of its subsidiaries or affiliates; and (8) address government requests or present a legal claim or defense. In order to complete the purposes identified, Carrier may need to transfer the personal information you provide to another country but will do so with appropriate protections in place.

With whom is your personal information shared?
Your personal information may be shared with:

- World Travel, Inc. to provide logistics support, such as hotel and registration assistance;
- Cvent for hosting and administration of the event registration system;
- The venues hosting any part of the event; and
- Other service providers for the purposes identified above.

Although World Travel, Inc. may communicate directly with you regarding the event, no marketing information will be sent to you. You may view World Travel's privacy statement by clicking here.

Where is your personal information stored?
Personal information provided by you through the registration system is stored in the United States and managed by Cvent, the provider of the event registration system.

What cookies does the registration system use?
No cookies are installed through the use of this registration system except to help you navigate during each individual session.

Will the event be recorded?
Some events are preserved by video and/or audio recording. Ordinarily, the invitation to the meeting will inform you about whether or not the event will be recorded and how you might be able to participate without being recorded. If your invitation does not provide such information, you should contact the meeting planner whose name and contact information is on the welcome page. If the event is recorded, the recording will be used to: (1) provide additional training; (2) benchmark with outside companies on training; (3) facilitate the sale or transfer of some or all of the assets of Carrier; and (4) address government requests or to present a legal claim or defense. The recordings will be shared among Carrier entities and with Carrier service providers, but only for the purposes identified here as well as to make the recordings usable, such as for editing or formatting. In order to complete one of the purposes identified, Carrier may need to transfer the recordings to other countries but will do so with appropriate protections in place. If you do not want to be recorded, use the means provided to opt-out or contact your meeting planner if no mechanism is offered.

Who do I contact if I have any questions about my personal data?
If you have any questions regarding your personal information in this registration system or if you would like to access or correct your data, please contact the meeting planner whose name and contact information is on the welcome page. If you have questions about Carrier's privacy compliance program, please contact the Carrier Privacy Office at privacy@carrier.com
