

Updated 10/25/2022

GBTA Convention 2023 Code of Conduct Policy

GBTA's Values

GBTA is an organization focused on its participants. GBTA Convention is designed to increase interaction, engagement, collaboration, connectivity, and community, in a fun and safe learning environment.

GBTA endorses the principles of equal opportunity to participants without regard for race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, marital status, amnesty, or status as a covered veteran. GBTA does not discriminate against persons with physical or mental disabilities. Should participants require reasonable accommodations to participate at GBTA's Convention, a request should be made to Nicole Seely, Senior Event Manager, at nseely@gbta.org.

We value the participation of each member of the community and endeavor to deliver an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Convention participants are expected to conduct themselves with integrity, courtesy, and respect for others and maintain the highest level of professionalism at all conference programs and events, whether officially sponsored by GBTA or not. All attendees, speakers, organizers, volunteers, partners, vendors, and staff at any GBTA event are required to observe the following Code of Conduct.

GBTA Code of Conduct

GBTA is dedicated to providing a harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, or religion. We do not tolerate harassment of Convention participants in any form. All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of diverse backgrounds and cultures. Sexual language and imagery are not appropriate for the conference. Do not insult or defame participants. Harassment in any form, sexist, racist, or exclusionary jokes are not condoned at GBTA Events. Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the conference at the sole discretion of GBTA. Thank you for helping to make this a welcoming event for all.