Welcome to Boston Reception

Boston Public Library
Friday, November 3 • 7–8:30 pm • Boston Public Library, McKim Building

The Boston Public Library is located just a short walk from the Hynes Convention Center and the majority of the conference hotels. You will enter the library through the historic entrance on Dartmouth Street.

Walking Directions

Arriving from the Westin Copley Place: Exit the hotel via the main exit on Huntington Avenue. The Boston Public Library is located across the street. Cross the street at the corner of Huntington Avenue and Dartmouth Street. Continue a half block on Dartmouth Street. The historic entrance to the library is located on the left.

Arriving from the Boston Marriott Copley Place: We recommend that you walk through the Copley Place Mall to the Westin Copley Place and follow the directions above.

Arriving from the Sheraton Boston or Hynes Convention Center: We recommend that you walk through the Prudential Center and Copley Place Mall to the Westin Copley Place and follow the directions above.

Walking or taking transportation from other conference hotels and destinations throughout Boston: The historic entrance to the Boston Public Library is located on Dartmouth Street, between Boylston Street and Huntington Avenue. There is no specific address to enter into a GPS to arrive at the historic entrance (note that GPS systems will direct you to the main entrance on Boylston Street). The closest landmark is the Westin Copley Place, located less than one block away.
