

Georgia Academy Seeking Members to Attend AAFP Leadership Conference – April 28-30

Attention 2022 GAFP Active Members: AAFP Leadership Conference - April 28-30 – Kansas City, Missouri Sheraton Kansas City Hotel at Crown Center

To: GAFP Colleagues (Active Member Category)

From: Susana Ajoy Alfonso, MD, MCHM, FAAFP

If you want to get more involved in your state and national academies, being a delegate to the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) Annual Chapter Leadership Forum (ACLF) and the National Conference of Constituency Leaders (NCCL) is the perfect opportunity. Join your Georgia colleagues and network with over 300 family physician leaders from around the country at this vibrant meeting in Kansas City, Missouri.

Whether you're seeking professional development, leadership development, or a voice in policy development, the AAFP Leadership Conference is the place to network, learn, and train with hundreds of current and aspiring leaders in family medicine. Three-plus days of training. Two dynamic tracks. One focus: LEADERSHIP.

<https://www.aafp.org/events/aclf-nccl.html>

Chapter delegates participate in all NCCL-specific business functions and have the opportunity to attend a variety of educational breakout sessions each day as well. If you are chosen to be a GAFP representative to ACLF or NCCL, the Georgia Academy will reimburse your travel expenses up to $800 - $1,000* (with the submission of an expense report and receipts).

This travel stipend typically does not cover the cost of the entire meeting which is between $1,000 - $1,300.*

If you are interested serving as a delegate to ACLF or NCCL please email ffulton@gafp.org and make a brief statement of your interest no later than Thursday, February 3. All nominees will be notified in mid-February in time to register for the “early bird” AAFP registration discount. If you would like more information or have any questions, please contact Fay Fulton (ffulton@gafp.org) or call 800.392.3841.