

APNC expects all attendees to abide by the following code of conduct to ensure a respectful, professional, and fun conference experience for all attendees.

1. Professionalism

- a. Attendees must always maintain a high level of professionalism.

2. Session Etiquette

- a. Attendees must be respectful of the conference environment. They should avoid disrupting speakers or fellow attendees.

3. Harassment

- a. Attendees should treat all conference participants—including other attendees, organizers, and exhibitors—with respect and courtesy.
- b. Harassment, discrimination, or any form of unwelcome or offensive behavior will not be tolerated.

4. Respect Property

- a. Attendees must respect the conference venue and its property. Damage, misuse, or removal of venue property is prohibited.
- b. Attendees are expected to follow all venue rules and instructions from venue staff.
- c. Any damage caused may result in removal from the conference and financial responsibility for repairs or replacement.

5. Compliance

- a. Failure to comply with this code of conduct may result in consequences, including removal from conference area, removal from current and future conferences, and forfeiture of fees.

6. Modifications

- a. Conference organizers reserve the right to modify this code of conduct as necessary and will notify exhibitors of any changes.

All attendees are expected to review and agree to this code of conduct before participating in the conference to help ensure a positive experience for everyone attending conference.