Dear Colleague:
Attend this conference and receive fresh perspectives on the practice of eminent domain law in Texas!

New developments in the law are quickly changing the practice of eminent domain and land valuation. At this conference, experienced faculty—judges, attorneys, appraisers, common carriers, and real estate professionals—will explore current issues in the field of eminent domain.

Here are just a few of the key topics for discussion:

- National Eminent Domain and Takings Law Update
- Proposed Changes to Texas Eminent Domain Law
- Recent Texas Trial Updates
- Pipeline Litigation
- Government Takings: Fee Taking v. Easement Taking
- Pipeline Project Updates and Challenges for Condemnors
- Judge's Presentation: Perspective from the Bench with Q&A
- Pipeline Takings

Your course registration includes numerous opportunities to interact with faculty and participants, including a private Happy Hour on Thursday evening.

See you in July!

Sincerely,

Jeremy D. Baker, Esq.
Program Co-Chair
Warren Baker, Houston

Justin Hodge, Esq.

Featured Judge’s Presentation
Perspective from the Bench with Q&A

Hon. Andrew M. Edison
United States Magistrate Judge in the District Court
Southern District of Texas, Galveston

Judge Andrew Edison earned his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College and his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. Prior to taking the bench in 2018, Judge Edison was a highly respected trial lawyer, appearing for the past 25 years in state courts, federal courts and arbitration panels across the country. He lectures frequently at various continuing legal education seminars and serves as an adjunct professor at the University of Houston Law Center, teaching Remedies and Trial Advocacy. Outside the law, Judge Edison is an avid sports fan and can often be found attending sports events all over the globe. Although he is not blessed with much athletic ability, Judge Edison has managed to run—and complete—five marathons, including the Boston Marathon.
