Uruguay - Punta del Este

ARGENTINA

Day 1 | Sunday, January 10 – Departure

- Depart from your home city on an overnight international flight to Buenos Aires (EZE).

Day 2 | Monday, January 11 – Arrive Buenos Aires

- Arrive at EZE (Ezeiza International Airport) in the morning.
- You can take a Radio Taxi to the Fierro Hotel. If you would like a private transfer, let us know and we will arrange it for you. (approx. 45–60 min depending on traffic).
- Check into the Fierro Hotel in the lovely Palermo neighborhood. (2 nights)
- Late morning/early afternoon at leisure to rest after the overnight flight. Optional walk through Palermo Soho/Palermo Hollywood for coffee and to get oriented.
- Evening Welcome cocktail
- Dinner is on your own, but if you are interested in booking a Tango Show with Dinner, just let us know and we will book a group.

Day 3 | Tuesday, January 12 – Full Day Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina, is one of the most exciting cities in the world – defined by a sophisticated, refined Latin American influence but on a cosmopolitan par with New York and Paris. South America's gateway city is full of beautiful parks and plazas lined with mature trees, large boulevards, and an architectural wonderland of landmark buildings thanks to a mix of Old-World influences. Sidewalk cafes, museums, and churches throughout 26 unique neighborhoods offer diverse personalities.

- Enjoy your breakfast in the hotel's lounge or lush outdoor garden, and then we will head out to visit several of the city's highlights.
- Full-day private city tour including:
    - San Telmo (cobblestone streets, antique shops)
    - La Boca and Caminito (colorful houses, tango dancers)
    - Recoleta Cemetery and Recoleta neighborhood
    - Palermo parks and Japanese Garden (time permitting)
- Lunch as a group
- Tonight, we will dine at UCO, the award-winning restaurant in our hotel. Get your appetite ready! Everything is prepared in-house, every day. They smoke their Patagonian trout, cure their bacon, make their ice cream, bake fresh bread daily, and this mouthwatering list just goes on and on.

Day 4 | Wednesday, January 13 – Fly to Salta, Drive to Cafayate

- Following breakfast, we will drive to the local airport, AEP (Jorge Newbery Airport) for our direct flight to Salta City on Aerolineas Argentinas. Aerolineas Argentinas, AEP → SLA (Salta), departs 10:55 AM, arrives at 1:10 PM.
- Drive to Cafayate (approx. 3.5–4 hours through the scenic colorful rock formations of Quebrada de las Conchas/Cafayate Canyon. One of the most breathtaking jewels -This stunning geological marvel, also known as the "Shell Gorge" showcases nature's artistry in the heart of the Andes.
- Stop en route for Light lunch
- Overnight: Patios de Cafayate Hotel (Hilton's Curio Collection). In the early evening, we will arrive at the charming, Colonial-style Patios de Cafayate Wine Hotel, our lodging for the next three nights. The hotel is on the grounds of El Esteco Winery and vineyards. We will enjoy Dinner at the lovely restaurant at the hotel.

Day 5 | Thursday, January 14 – Cafayate

- Full day to explore Cafayate, Argentina's high-altitude wine region famous for Torrontés.

Cafayate - Insanely gorgeous – that is the only way to describe the route to this high desert town, Argentina's second center for wine production after Mendoza. Known for its high-altitude wines, Cafayate also boasts perfect weather and mesmerizing, ever-changing views of the towering Andes Mountains.

You will be immersed in this casual, laidback lifestyle… from our Colonial-style hotel set in a vineyard with a winery next door… to La Estancia de Cafayate, an exceptional development established by legendary financial guru Doug Casey. You will have plenty of time to explore the town, soak up this unique experience, or simply relax.

Situated between sprawling vineyards and the Andean foothills, La Estancia offers beautiful residences, a golf course, horseback riding, a state-of-the-art gym and spa, a comfortable clubhouse, a fabulous restaurant… and drop-dead views.

After a relaxed breakfast, we will head to La Estancia de Cafayate to learn about this masterpiece development and see available properties. Terri Casey is the only licensed real estate agent in this area. She will familiarize us with the Estancia and tell you about properties in other areas of Argentina.

After lunch at the Clubhouse, we will return to Patios, and you will have free time to relax and enjoy the pool or treat yourself to the spa.

This evening, we will dine at Bad Brothers Wine Experience, featuring a wonderful tapas-style menu and emblematic wines from this region.

- Overnight: Patios de Cafayate.

Day 6 | Friday, January 15 – Cafayate

- Second full day in Cafayate. Options to round out the wine country experience:
    - Horseback riding or golf at the Estancia de Cafayate

- Lunch as a group at a local winery
- Dinner at the spectacular winery and vineyards of Piattelli
- Overnight: Patios de Cafayate.

Day 7 | Saturday, January 16 – Drive to Salta City

- Morning departure from Cafayate, driving back through the canyon to Salta city (approx. 3.5–4 hours).
- Along the drive, we will make stops for photos at rock formations (Garganta del Diablo, El Anfiteatro, Los Castillos).
- Arrive in afternoon; check into El Bodeguero Hotel https://www.elbodeguerohotel.com.ar/

Outstanding museums and pink and pastel blue buildings with ornate facades highlight the picturesque main square of Argentina's most beautifully preserved Colonial city.

You can sit at a sidewalk café sipping one of the region's signature wines, watch horse-drawn carts pass by on their way to deliver fresh produce, or shop for top-quality goods in high-end stores.

Salta City offers the comforts and services of a large town yet retains the charm of a smaller place. But beware, sounds of tango and the aromas of tasty locro stews (a traditional hearty, slow-cooked dish of hominy corn, beans, squash, and meats that embodies the country's Andean roots and European influences) and the best-ever empanadas, can be irresistible!

- City tour of Salta, highlights include:
    - Plaza 9 de Julio and Salta Cathedral
    - MAAM (Museum of High-Altitude Archaeology — home to the Llullaillaco Children)
    - San Francisco Church
- Our plans tonight include wine tasting and dinner as a group with members of the Bonner family.
- Overnight: El Bodeguero Hotel

Day 8 | Sunday, January 17 – Fly to Mendoza

- After breakfast we will head to the airport for our flight to Mendoza. Upon arrival, we will go on a driving tour of the city before we continue for about an hour to Valle de Uco – Argentina's most exciting wine region.
- Aerolineas Argentinas, SLA → MDZ (Mendoza), departs 10:30 AM, arrives 12:15 PM.
- Lunch - We will stop for lunch along the way at a Winery.
- Arrive at La Morada, a uniquely styled, small boutique lodge with a backdrop of the imposing Andes. Situated in the middle of a 670-acre vineyard, this peaceful oasis will be our base for the next three nights – it is the perfect place to experience the magic of Uco Valley.
- Dinner tonight will be at the Hornero Restaurant, the heart of La Morada Lodge. Prepare yourself for a gastronomic experience, a combination of authentic dishes crafted by Chef Edward Holloway, accompanied by great wines and cocktails designed by renowned sommelier Andres Rosberg.
- Overnight: La Morada Hotel — 3 nights.

Day 9 | Monday, January 18 – Mendoza Wine Country

- We will start the day with a lovely a la carte breakfast prepared with fresh seasonal provisions. And then we are off for a fun-filled day.
- Our first stop will be at a nearby winery and vineyard for a tour and tasting, and then we will visit another renowned winery for a special lunch.
- Your afternoon is free to relax and enjoy this breathtaking environment – with endless vistas of vineyards, beautiful gardens, a refreshing pool, and the ever-present, amazing, magnificent Andes.
- You can book a massage OR you can take advantage of La Morada's complimentary bicycles and tour the vineyards.
- We will dine tonight with a menu of light tapas at Hornero while enjoying fantastic wines.
- Overnight: La Morada.

Day 10 | Tuesday, January 19 – Mendoza Wine Country

- Second full day at La Morada
- Start with a leisurely breakfast at La Morada, delighting in this peaceful setting. We will begin another exciting day by making our first stop at a local ham museum – dedicated to the production of Argentina's most delicious ham.
- Next, you can ride horseback to our lunch in the mountains or choose to go by vehicle. We will have time for a respite in this relaxing area before heading back to La Morada to dine together at a sunset asado outdoors
- Overnight: La Morada.

URUGUAY

Day 11 | Wednesday, January 20 – Fly to Punta del Este (via AEP)

- 6:30 AM: Depart La Morada for Mendoza airport.
- Aerolineas Argentinas, MDZ → AEP, departs 8:50 AM, connecting through Buenos Aires (AEP), continuing to PDP (Punta del Este).
- Arrive PDP approximately 12:35 PM.
- Private transfer to AWA Boutique + Design Hotel
- Remainder of day at leisure to settle in.
- We'll have dinner at AWA Boutique + Design Hotel
- Overnight: AWA Boutique + Design Hotel

Day 12 | Thursday, January 21 – Punta del Este

- Morning/midday: Half-day meetings.
- Following breakfast, at AWA we will begin our conference with morning presentations.
- Our local experts will cover Uruguay's advantages for foreign investors, residency, and citizenship, and the "A to Z" of farmland investing.
- Juan Federico Fischer and his team will introduce you to Uruguay, Latin America's haven, with an overview of the country's business climate, taxes, and banking. Plus, you will hear about Uruguay's easy residency and relocation options.
- In the afternoon, we will head out for a three-hour tour of Punta del Este with the Andersen group. You will learn about the area's history, and we will discuss residential real estate and lifestyle opportunities.
- Tonight, we will have dinner together as a group at I'marangatu on Mansu Beach, where we will enjoy a marvelous meal accompanied by beautiful views and an amazing sunset.

Day 13 | Friday, January 22 – Punta del Este

- Same structure as Day 12: half-day meetings, afternoon tour, dinner.

Our morning presentations in the Grand Salon continue today. Francesca Magno and Juan Federico Fischer will explain investing in Uruguay, purchasing property, and residential real estate investment possibilities. Sebastian da Silva will reveal the "A to Zs" of farmland investing and then we will depart for lunch together at Bodega Garzon and enjoy panoramic vistas of the surrounding countryside, along with traditional dishes and their excellent wines.

- Afterward we will learn even more as we take a farmland tour.
- Explore on your own tonight and try out Punta del Este's exciting restaurant scene.

Day 14 | Saturday, January 23 – Punta del Este

- Enjoy breakfast at your leisure and the morning will be free to visit more of the area or meet up with any of our speakers.
- We will have lunch at O'Farrell Kitchen, in the garden overlooking the beaches of Manantiales. Their mouth-watering menu offers fresh seafood and organic farm products prepared on an Argentine-style grill and complemented by excellent wines.
- We will stop at MACA this afternoon, the Atchugarry Museum of Contemporary Art designed by architect Carlos Ott. It is an iconic space for Uruguayan culture, an important tourism attraction for both its architectural value and featured artistic exhibitions.
- You will have free time to explore or just relax before we celebrate our last night in this vibrant city… with a traditional Uruguayan barbeque at the home of our gracious host Juan Federico Fisher.

Day 15 | Sunday, January 24 – Return to Montevideo for Departures

- Private transfer from Punta del Este to MVD (Montevideo) for onward/return international flights (approx. 2-hour drive).
- Flight details TBD.
