

Sustainable meeting practices

General Manager's Message

At Avani+ Bangkok, we're passionate about sustainability and making it a part of our vibrant and dynamic culture. We believe in creating real value for our community, delivering fantastic experiences for our guests, and building strong, positive relationships with all our stakeholders. Sustainability at Avani+ is woven into our daily activities, ensuring every department and team member is contributing to our collective green goals. Our sustainability committee leads the charge with innovative initiatives that resonate with our community and stakeholders. Together, we're committed to making a positive impact on our environment and ensuring a brighter, greener future for everyone.

Please contact us via the email avaniplus.bangkok@avanihotels.com
if there is any challenges or inquires of the sustainable practices for the community
