An aerial photograph of a resort named Mar Vista. In the foreground, a large, ornate gazebo with a copper-colored dome and white columns sits on a circular brick platform. The gazebo is surrounded by a series of concentric, tiered green lawns. A winding path leads from the gazebo area towards a large, multi-story resort building in the background. The building has a red-tiled roof and is surrounded by lush greenery, including palm trees and manicured hedges. In the distance, a hillside with some houses is visible under a clear sky. Two white curved arrows point from the text labels to specific areas in the image.

An aerial night photograph of The Resort at Pelican Hill. The resort's main building, a large complex with multiple wings and a tiled roof, is illuminated with warm interior and exterior lights. To the right of the main building is a large, circular swimming pool with a bright blue glow, surrounded by palm trees and lounge areas. In the foreground, a well-manicured golf course green and sand traps are visible. The resort is nestled in a valley, with a hillside covered in dense vegetation and a residential neighborhood with lit-up houses visible in the background under a twilight sky.
