ANNEX I – Events Supplementary Privacy Statement – Travel/Dietary/Photographs/Film

Supplementary Privacy Statement

This Supplementary Privacy Statement complements the relevant Privacy Notice available at https://www.shell.com/privacy.html and from the Shell website in your location. The aim is to inform you about the use of your personal data prior to and during events (co-)organised by Shell.

Travel and Dietary

If you choose to attend, the relevant Shell company (co)organising the event 'Shell' will gather the minimum amount of personal data required to enable attendance. For example, your name, personal or business contact details and information about your role in the organization you represent. If travel is organized for you by Shell, you may also be asked to provide further information required to organize such travel such as passport details. You will be required to show a form of identification on arrival at the event such as a national identity card or passport for the purposes of safety and security. No copy will be made of such document. If you require special assistance for health reasons or have specific dietary requirements due to health and/or religious reasons, then please specify these where asked to enable to allow Shell to accommodate you.

Your personal data will be held for the length of time as explained in the relevant Privacy Notice save for any information gathered in relation to adjustments for health reasons or dietary requirements which will be deleted immediately after the event unless there is a legal or regulatory reason to retain such data, in which case it will be deleted once no longer required for that purpose.

Photographs and Film

If photographs and/or film is being taken at the event you are attending, Shell will gather such information for general publicity and commercial purposes, internal Shell initiatives, paid advertising, at events and through print media, online media, Shell's own media and television media.

Except where required by applicable local law or emergency situations, or for our archiving arrangements referred to below, photographs or film are exclusively processed for the purposes referred to above and will only be shared with:

- Other companies within the Shell group of companies;
- Authorized third party agents, service providers, external auditors and/or subcontractors of Shell;

- A competent public authority, government, regulatory or fiscal agency where it is necessary to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation to which the relevant Shell company/companies is subject to or as permitted by applicable local law; or
- With your consent, with authorized third party companies that co-host or are a business partner in the event.

Shell will not process such materials for longer than five years where consent is gathered, and not for longer than 10 years where there is a legitimate reason for processing in line with the purposes specified above, after which they will be deleted.In all cases information may be held for:

(a) a longer period of time where there is a legal or regulatory reason to do so (in which case it will be deleted once no longer required for the legal or regulatory purpose) or where the material is retained in our archive for public interest or historical and statistical research purposes; or
(b) a shorter period where the individual objects to the processing of their personal data and there is no longer a legitimate business purpose to retain it, or consent is withdrawn.

In those cases where processing is based on consent, and subject to applicable local law which provides otherwise, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. This will not affect the validity of the processing prior to the withdrawal of consent.
