World Heritage: Western Australia’s natural sites

Shannon Hassell
Policy and Planning Officer, Parks and Visitor Services
Department of Parks and Wildlife, Kensington
World Heritage properties
WA natural World Heritage sites

1. Shark Bay
2. Purnululu National Park
3. Ningaloo Coast
Shark Bay:
Outstanding Universal Values
Shark Bay: Challenges and Strategies

Challenges

- Introduced flora and fauna
- Impacts from human activities/tourism
- Impacts from climate change
- Uncontrolled fire
- Fisheries and aquatic activities

Strategies

- Project Eden and Return to 1616
- Management Plans
- Research and monitoring
- Inter-agency support
- Development planning
- Existing legislation and policy
- Advisory Committee
Purnululu National Park:
Outstanding Universal Values
Purnululu National Park: Challenges and Strategies

Challenges

- Introduced flora and fauna (inc. cane toads)
- Impacts from human activities/tourism
- Impacts from climate change
- Fire
- Native Title claims

Strategies

- Feral animal and weed programs
- Management Plans
- Research and monitoring
- Development planning
- Existing legislation and policy
- Advisory Committee
Ningaloo Coast
The Ningaloo Coast: Outstanding Universal Values
The Ningaloo Coast: Challenges and Strategies

Challenges
- Impacts from human activities/tourism
- Introduced flora and fauna
- Impacts from climate change
- Fire
- Commercial marine activity

Strategies
- Tourism operator licensing
- Partnerships with research institutions
- Feral animal and weed programs
- Management Plans
- Inter-agency support
- Existing legislation and policy
- Advisory Committee
Next...
World Heritage experts