

IRF Coding Essentials Workshop

UDSMR (now part of Netsmart) is an AOTA Approved Provider of continuing education. Assignment of AOTA CEUs does not imply endorsement of specific course content, products, or clinical procedures by AOTA.

Session 1: Sept. 16, 2025 | 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. ET

12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

- Introductions, housekeeping, an overview of the workshop's agenda
- Review of provided resources
- A review of the IRF PPS
- Introduction to the IRF-PAI, Program Interruptions, Case-Mix Group (CMG) and the IRF coder's role
- Thorough review of the 60% rule
 - Presumptive review
 - Determining compliance
 - Utilize the compliant and noncompliant code lists
 - Documentation examples

1:00 – 2:00 p.m.

- Review of Impairment Group Codes (IGCs) and Etiologic Diagnosis Coding
 - Review Appendix A
 - Understanding the relationship between the IGC and etiologic diagnoses
 - Coding the etiologic diagnosis on the IRF-PAI
 - Coding the UB-04
- Begin review of each impairment category and highlight documentation examples of IGC and etiologic diagnosis pairings

Session 2: Sept. 17, 2025: 12:00 – 2:00 p.m. ET

12:00 – 1:15 p.m.

- Begin with any questions from day 1 information
- Continue review of each impairment category and highlight documentation examples of IGC and etiologic diagnosis pairings

1:15 – 2:00 p.m.

- A review of comorbid conditions and tier assignments
- Discussion about IRF-PAI item 47, Complications

