Photo and Video Release Form

Quantum Summit 2027 | February 2027

I grant permission to the Quantum Summit 2027 organizers and the New Mexico Consortium to photograph, record, and/or capture my image, likeness, voice, and participation in connection with Quantum Summit 2027, a two-day science conference taking place February 2027.

I authorize the Quantum Summit 2027 organizers to use, reproduce, publish, distribute, and display these photographs, videos, recordings, and other related materials in communications and promotional materials related to Quantum Summit 2027 and the New Mexico Consortium, including but not limited to websites, social media channels, newsletters, reports, presentations, print materials, digital publications, and other educational or marketing materials.

I understand that my participation is voluntary and that I will not receive financial compensation for the use of these materials. I acknowledge that the Quantum Summit 2027 organizers and the New Mexico Consortium owns the rights to use these materials and that I will not receive royalties or other compensation related to their use.

I release and hold harmless the Quantum Summit 2027 organizers and the New Mexico Consortium, its employees, contractors, partners, and other parties involved in the creation, production, or distribution of these materials from any claims, demands, or liability arising from their authorized use.

I understand that once materials are published or shared, they may be viewed, copied, or shared by others beyond the Quantum Summit 2027 organizers and the New Mexico Consortium's control.
