Ventus

Join the Ventus community at the Harris Customer Training Conference and gain practical strategies to strengthen your organization's Revenue Cycle performance. As healthcare organizations face increasing payer denials, reimbursement pressure, staffing challenges, and regulatory complexity, HCTC delivers actionable insights to help teams improve financial outcomes and operational efficiency. Through expert-led sessions and interactive learning, attendees will discover how AI and automation are transforming Revenue Cycle operations by improving coding accuracy, identifying denial trends faster, streamlining workflows, reducing manual effort, easing staffing pressures, and accelerating cash flow.

Explore the latest innovations from Ventus Contract Management, Compliance Advisor, and Intelligent Coding while connecting with peers and industry experts to share best practices and real-world success stories.

Attendees will leave with actionable ideas and measurable strategies to reduce denials, improve revenue integrity, employee workload relief, and elevate the patient bill payment experience. Register today and help shape the future of Revenue Cycle excellence.
