Very inspiring

I love this book so much! My favorite quote from the book is "Committed educators don't stop, even when everyone else does." You are an inspiration Sean Buchanan!

Sean Buchanan Read the book last night. Excellent. Almost made me want to go back into education. Key word-- almost! So proud of you and I will certainly pass information on to my active educator friends.

What is T.L.C.?

You know what I'm SAYING???

Is fundamental to serving the needs of our students.

What are the foundations...

- Tenacity - tending to keep a firm hold of something, not easily dispelled.
- Loyalty - giving or showing firm and constant support
- Commitment - the state or quality of being dedicated to a cause, activity, etc.

How do these definitions apply to us (you)?

Tenacity!

Why is this such a necessary quality?

Tenacity! (2nd Look At This One!)

The enthusiasm associated with tenacity allows you to attempt to reach self focused children, and not give up until you do.

Self Focused...apathetic, defiant, etc.

Emotions vs. Decisions

Tackle these situations with decisions, and let your emotions follow.

Teaching!

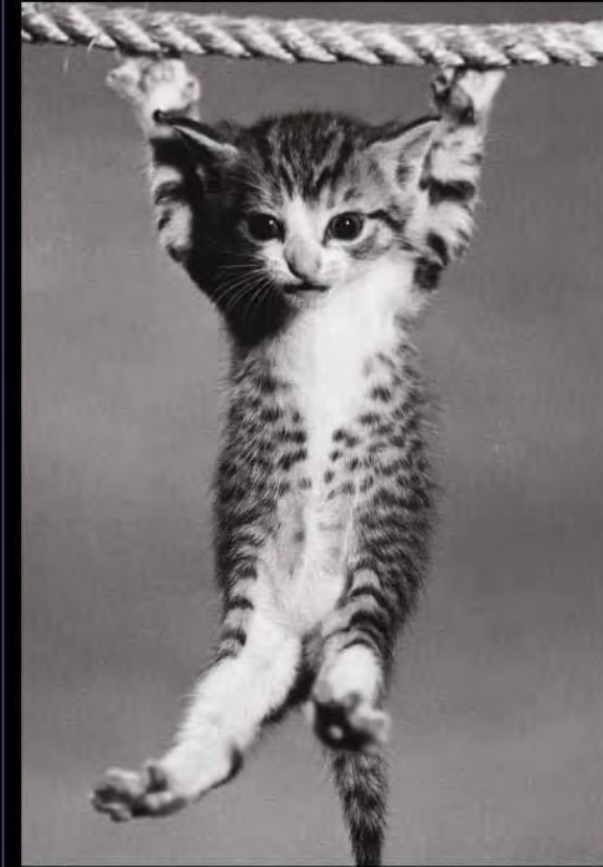

Commitment

You may say:

- I'm committed to my cause...
- I'm working my tail off!

Is that enough?

COMMITMENT

Commitment

Not only did he have serious facial hair, he was committed...

Commitment...

- When frustrations arrive, “I’m done!” is not an option.
- Never forget, there’s always a solution!
- If you’re going to do something big, it’s going to be hard.
- Sometimes all you need is an idea.
