(ticketed event)

One of the unique opportunities that ACCC Conference delegates will have at the Penticton Conference comes on Sunday night when Okanagan College presents an "Own the Podium!" evening in the restaurant of the South Okanagan Events Centre, Vault Bar and Grill.

If they wish to do so, individuals can have a two-minute opportunity at the microphone to share with their colleagues' important ideas, stories, and insights pertaining to post-secondary. You can even talk about a book you've just read, a problem you're having or solving, almost anything! But a word of warning - the time limit is two (2) minutes just to keep things moving and the moderator is going to be vicious about enforcement.

Cost is $20 (cash only) for dinner to go along with the evening. Refreshments (a variety of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages) will be available for purchase.

Register at the information booth and bring your $20 bill to the Vault!
