AAMG 2022 Conference COVID Disclaimer and Agreement

By attending the AAMG 2022 Conference on the campus of Utah State University, I agree to abide by the stated policies of the campus in regards to COVID-19 at the time of the conference: June 14-17, 2022.

General policies to follow include but are not limited to:

1. If you have a symptom (fever, cough, shortness of breath, muscle aches and pains, loss of smell or taste, sore throat), please return home and participate virtually.

2. Maintain social distancing and try to stay 6 feet away from other people.

3. Wear a mask when you are in public or around other people. Make sure your mask fits properly and covers your mouth and nose. (If advised/mandated by the university or city, county, state, or federal guidelines and laws.)

4. If you are feeling sick or have come in contact with someone who has tested positive, self-isolate and stay home.

5. Avoid close contact with other people. When you cough or sneeze, cover your nose and mouth.

6. Regularly wash your hands with soap and warm water for 20 seconds.

7. If you develop COVID symptoms or are tested while at the conference or within 10 days of attending, please reach out to the conference organizers so we can reach out to others.

Questions?
Reach out to aacademiccgm@gmail.com