

Recruiting & Hiring for Law Enforcement

Live-Stream Interactive Course

May 19 - 20, 2021 | 8:00am - 4:30pm, Central

The process of recruiting, vetting, and hiring qualified applicants represents one of the greatest challenges confronting law enforcement. In 2019, Dolan Consulting Group conducted an in-depth Recruiting and Retention Survey of over 1,600 law enforcement officers from around the country. The results of this survey will be utilized, along with an overview of innovative recruiting strategies being implemented throughout the country, to assist agencies in meeting the challenges of police recruiting in 2020.

Attendees will also learn about ways to navigate the hiring process while minimizing legal liability risks along the way. Most notably, there will be a substantive discussion on the legal, organizational, and public trust costs associated with hiring unqualified applicants in the midst of a "hiring frenzy."

- ▶ Diversifying and expanding the applicant pool
- ▶ Exploring innovative recruiting strategies being implemented by law enforcement agencies across the country
- ▶ Understanding the long-term consequences of failing to invest in the hiring process
- ▶ Creating agency policies to minimize liability in the hiring process
