

FTO Training:

Legal Liability and Best Practices

Live-Stream Interactive Course
January 6 - 7, 2021

The Field Training Assignment is an enormous entrustment to train, coach, and develop quality self-reliant street officers to serve your agency. This course is based on real-world time tested training methodologies that facilitate FTO's ability to develop exemplary street officers. We offer a proactive integrated training strategy to recalibrate the priorities of the FTO Program legally, ethically, professionally, and with a passion for mastering core competencies to succeed operationally.

The probationary employment period presents public safety agencies with a unique opportunity to evaluate performance, identify "red flags" and take proactive measures to address misconduct.

This course will provide attendees with the knowledge necessary to recognize the most common and costly personnel liability issues facing FTOs. Attendees will be provided with the core concepts necessary to mitigate liability exposure, maximize the necessary skills to manage multitasking during crisis incidents, de-escalating situations with confidence, and provide quality service to the community.
