#17TLD02 – Lecture/Demo

Inspiration comes in waves, then quietly disappears. Self-doubt creeps in. Creative ruts become comfortable. Fear, comparison, perfectionism, and life's distractions begin to silence the voice that once seemed so clear.

In this deeply personal and inspiring lecture, Ricky Tims explores the inner landscape of creativity, the roadblocks that hold us back, the unexpected cheerleaders who lift us up, the critics we carry within ourselves, and the courage it takes to move beyond them.

Recognized as a master of encouragement, Ricky has inspired thousands of creatives to see new possibilities, overcome limiting beliefs, and rediscover the joy of creating. Through stories, humor, insight, and heartfelt reflection, he offers practical perspectives that have the power to transform not only your creative process but also the way you see yourself as an artist. Give yourself permission to reconnect with your creative spirit.

This is a lecture/demo class.
