The background of the entire image is a 5x6 grid of 30 identical photographs. Each photograph shows a long wooden table set for a formal dinner. The table is covered with a white tablecloth and is laden with various dishes, including what appears to be a large roast, bread, vegetables, and several glasses. The setting is outdoors, with green foliage visible in the background. Overlaid on this grid is the number '16,000' in a large, bold, white sans-serif font. The number is positioned in the upper half of the image, with the '1' on the left and the '000' on the right. The comma is placed between the '6' and the first '0'.
