

COOL SPACES EPIC PLACES IN TUCSON

THE BARN

The Barn at Tanque Verde Ranch has a maximum capacity of up to 482 guests

What Makes It Special:

Stunning Location: It sits at the base of the Rincon Mountains and next to Saguaro National Park, giving guests breathtaking desert and sunset views.

Rustic Elegance: The space mixes modern design with a classic Old West, equestrian-inspired touch.

Indoor-Outdoor Flow: It features a massive grand dining room with panoramic sliding doors that open to an expansive exterior lawn and patio.

All-In-One Experience: The historic Tanque Verde Ranch offers on-site guest casitas, in-house catering, and outdoor group activities like horseback riding and hiking

THE PLAZA AT HOTEL CONGRESS

The Hotel Congress Plaza has a maximum capacity of around 700

What Makes It Special:

Park-Like Setting: Features outdoor seating under Chinese pistachio trees.

Historic Vibe: Located at the iconic, historic Hotel Congress in downtown Tucson.

Full Amenities: Includes two full bars, an on-site food truck, and an Airstream green room.

Professional Production: Equipped with a state-of-the-art sound and lighting system for concerts and private parties.

LA ROSA

La Rosa is a special event venue inside a beautifully restored, historic former Benedictine Monastery chapel in midtown Tucson.

What Makes It Special:

Historic Architecture: Located at 800 N. Country Club Road, the space preserves its gorgeous high ceilings and historic character.

Stunning Acoustics: The former church architecture creates unique, high-quality acoustics and lighting projection for live performances.

Unique Amenities: Features multiple distinctive bars (including a one-person bar called The Confessionary) and a spacious outdoor patio area.

Versatile Use: Hosts private concerts, corporate functions, weddings, receptions, and fundraisers.

Capacity Guest Limit: It can accommodate up to 700 to 750 guests depending on the specific event setup and configuration

CORBETTS

CORBETT'S in downtown Tucson is a unique entertainment venue that blends a nearly century-old historic setting with a restaurant, live music stage, and five pickleball courts, boasting a total buyout capacity of over 1,000 standing guests or 810 seated guests.

What Makes It Special:

Historic Vibe: Located inside and around the landmark 1920s Historic Corbett Building

Pickleball Integration: Features five dedicated pickleball courts—two climate-controlled indoor courts and three outdoor courts next to the beer garden

All-in-One Entertainment: Combines a full restaurant, multiple bars, outdoor misters, giant TVs, and a stage for live music.

Unique graffiti basement: for surprise and delight moments

DINNER IN THE DESERT

Imagine an elevated dinner under the stars complete with telescopes and an astronomer.

An old-fashioned cowboy cookout juxtaposes with an uber-luxurious table. Combine with music and cowboy games, or provide a jeep tour prior to dinner.

Capacity: unlimited, however you must work with a DMC for the details.

THE PLAYGROUND

A completely covered 2nd story rooftop in the heart of the city. Enjoy the action below in one of Tucson's most lively areas, yet maintain a lofty distance from above! Playground Bar & Lounge has a guest capacity of up to 170 seated guests for weddings, with overall rooftop and event capacities reaching up to 300 people.

What Makes It Special:

Stunning Views: The expanded rooftop (SkyDeck) offers panoramic, magazine-ready views of downtown Tucson and the Catalina Mountains.

Unique Layout: The venue splits across distinct areas including a main indoor bar, a quieter patio garden surrounding a large tree, and the climate-controlled rooftop.

Vibrant Vibe: It combines historic downtown charm with modern, high-energy nightlife design inspired by entertainment spots in cities like Nashville and Brooklyn.

Full-Service Flexibility: The space supports customized event planning, catering options, and state-of-the-art audiovisual systems for private parties.

OLD TUCSON

Old Tucson can accommodate anywhere from 50 to 5,000 guests, depending on the specific venue setup and event type.

What Makes It a Great Venue:

Historic Movie Set: Built in 1939, it provides an authentic, fully functional 1800s Western town backdrop used in classic films featuring icons like John Wayne.

Immersive Entertainment: Events can include live stunt shows, gunfights, historic tours, and seasonal themes like Nightfall or Yuletide.

Flexible Spaces: The grounds feature diverse rustic outdoor and indoor banquet facilities suitable for casual picnics or formal black-tie events.

Scenic Desert Backdrop: Nestled between Saguaro National Park and Tucson Mountain Park, it offers sweeping desert views just 25 minutes from downtown Tucson.

THE TREASURY 1929

The Treasury 1929 accommodates up to 200 guests (with around 190 seated).

What Makes It a Great Venue:

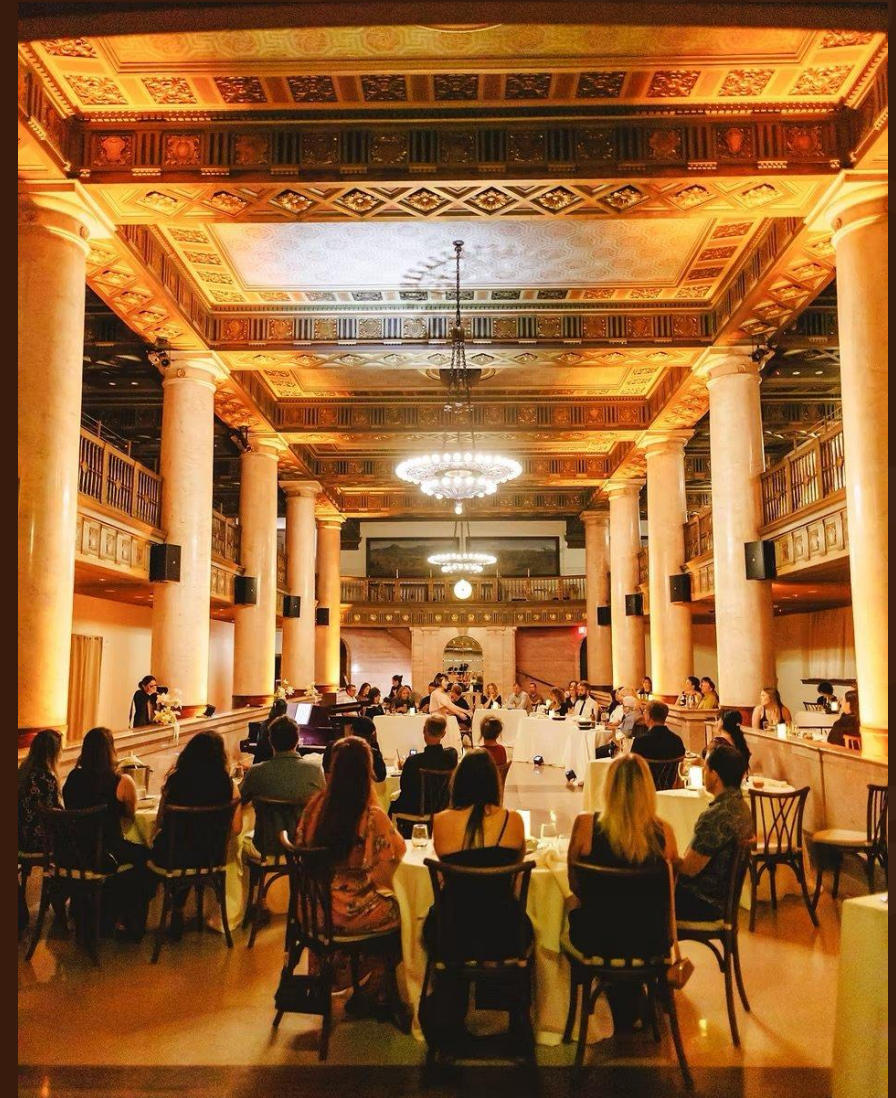

Historic Architecture: Built in 1929 as a grand bank, the landmark features soaring hand-painted ceilings, ornate chandeliers, tall marble columns, and original Art Deco details.

Multi-Level Flow: Spans three stories, including a grand main hall for ceremonies or receptions, a third-story mezzanine for cocktail hours, and a hidden basement speakeasy (Emerald 29) for late-night gatherings.

Repurposed Vaults: Features original bank vaults transformed into luxurious, private suites for entertainers to get ready in.

Chef-Driven Dining: Offers gourmet, in-house culinary experiences directed by veteran Tucson chef Daniel Scordato.

All-In-One Comfort: Provides a fully indoor, climate-controlled environment with three full bars, built-in sound/DJ setups, and three floors of access so guests rarely need to travel off-site or up-and-down stairs excessively

CULINARY DROPOUT

Culinary Dropout Tucson makes a standout special event venue due to its industrial-chic charm, flexible event spaces, and lively, entertainment-focused atmosphere. Located inside the historic, beautifully renovated Grant Road Lumber Yard, the venue pairs a relaxed, soulful ambiance with professional, full-service catering and bar capabilities.

Venue Capacity

The total capacity varies significantly based on which space you rent, ranging from intimate dinners to large-scale property buyouts:

Full Venue Buyout: Up to 550 to 650 guests (depending on layout and custom configurations).

The Covered Patio ("The Yard"): Up to 250 guests.

The Main Dining Room: Up to 130 guests.

The Coop (Private Indoor Space): Up to 85 seated or 100–130 reception-style guests.

Half of The Coop: Up to 50 seated or 65 standing guests.

COCORAQUE RANCH

Cocoraque Ranch & Pavilion can host up to 500 guests for large events utilizing the pavilion, open courtyard, and perimeter areas, with 224 to 250 guests cited as the ideal, comfortable seated capacity inside the covered pavilion.

What Makes It a Great Venue:

Authentic Western Vibe: It is a real, historic 16,000-acre working cattle ranch dating back to the 1890s in the Sonoran Desert, offering genuine rustic charm instead of artificial decor.

Stunning Scenery: Features panoramic desert views, saguaro-filled landscapes, and unique mountain backdrops for photos.

Seamless Event Flow: Designed with an open courtyard, a dedicated bar area for cocktail hour, and a covered pavilion for dining and dancing under string lights.

On-Site Amenities: Includes a covered pavilion with lighting and power, air-conditioned modern restrooms, private bridal suites, and oversized parking.

Unique Activities: Offers optional Western experiences like trail rides, cattle drives, and rodeos.

STARDANCE EVENT CENTER

The Stardance Event Center, located near Saguaro National Park West, is highly regarded for its blend of rustic elegance and panoramic desert landscapes. The venue can comfortably accommodate events ranging from 100 up to 500 guests.

Why Stardance is a Great Venue:

Breathtaking 360-Degree Views: Nestled against a mountain backdrop, the venue offers spectacular vistas of the Tucson Mountains, Sombrero Peak, and the Catalina Mountain Range. At night, guests can enjoy a clear view of the Tucson city lights.

Versatile Indoor & Outdoor Spaces: The Reception Pavilion: A 6,000-square-foot indoor barn-style space featuring twinkling ceiling lights and massive 40-foot sliding doors that open up on both sides to let in the fresh desert air. Sunset Vista: A 3,000-square-foot outdoor area ideal for open-air ceremonies. Catalina Terrace: A 5,000-square-foot outdoor patio lawn perfect for cocktail hours. Sombrero Peak Area: A 15,000-square-foot space equipped with landscaped bonfire pits for evening gatherings.

PIMA AIR & SPACE MUSEUM

The Pima Air & Space Museum is a premier event venue because it offers a unique, dramatic backdrop surrounded by historic aircraft from around the world, combined with versatile indoor and outdoor spaces and full-service event support.

Why It Is a Great Event Venue:

Unique Atmosphere: Guests can mingle directly under the wings of iconic, meticulously restored aircraft like the SR-71 Blackbird or F-14 Tomcat.

Versatile Spaces: The museum features multiple distinct areas tailored for corporate gatherings, cocktail receptions, holiday parties, and banquets.

Indoor Capacity: The museum's indoor facilities can comfortably accommodate groups ranging from 20 to 500 people depending on the specific room or configuration.

Specific Room Breakdown:

Flight Central (Main Hangar): Accommodates up to 320 guests standing/reception under historic military jets.

Spirit of Freedom (Main Hangar): Accommodates up to 120 guests for more intimate settings next to the SR-71.

Flight Grill (On-site Restaurant): Accommodates up to 100 people for evening events or luncheons.

John R. Stitt Education Center: Accommodates up to 100 people for meetings.

ARIZONA–SONORA DESERT MUSEUM

The Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum is a great event venue because it offers a unique Tucson backdrop featuring lush gardens, panoramic desert vistas, and incredible views of the Tucson Mountains.

Why It Is a Great Event Venue:

Stunning Scenery: Combines indoor and outdoor spaces surrounded by pristine Sonoran Desert landscapes.

Unique Enhancements: Offers live animal interactions (like ringtails or hawks), guided tours, and private programs.

Regional Catering: Provides innovative menus using ingredients indigenous to the region.

Versatility: Accommodates weddings, corporate meetings, memorials, and social parties.

Ironwood Terraces: Up to 450–500 guests (combination of indoor and outdoor patios).

Green Room: Up to 300 guests for a cocktail reception.

Desert Garden: Up to 250 guests.

Baldwin Building Theater: Up to 200 guests (135 for banquets, 160 for receptions).

Ocotillo Café: Up to 125 guests.

Boojum Terrace: Up to 75 guests for ceremonies

TRAILDUST TOWN & SAVOY OPERA HOUSE

Trail Dust Town in Tucson, Arizona, is a premier event venue because it combines a charming 1880s Old West atmosphere with comprehensive, modern event capabilities.

What Makes It a Great Event Venue:

Immersive Western Charm: The venue features authentic wooden plank sidewalks, red brick streets, and vintage-style architecture that transport guests back in time.

Built-In Entertainment: Events can easily incorporate unique attractions like the Pistoleros Wild West Stunt Show, a miniature train ride, a vintage carousel, a Ferris wheel, and gold panning.

Versatile Spaces: It offers a mix of indoor and outdoor options, ranging from an elegant Victorian-style banquet hall to rustic outdoor plazas and lawns.

Famous On-Site Dining: Catering and casual dining can be anchored by the iconic, world-famous Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse, known for its authentic Western food and strict "no-ties-allowed" policy

Contact Information:

Mary Meade

Vice President Sales

Visit Tucson

Email: mmeade@visittucson.org

Phone: (520) 770-2166

@VisitTucson | VisitTucson.org